

BIKE FACILITIES

A cycle lane edged with a solid white line is a mandatory cycle lane and other vehicles should not drive or park in it during hours of operation.

A cycle lane with a broken line edge is non-mandatory and other vehicles may move onto it if cyclists are not present or approaching, during hours of operation.

Unless hours of operation are posted on a sign, cycle lanes are deemed to be always in force.